

LOVING YOUR JET

Diplomacy, transparency and cultural diversity

What is your job at RUAG?

I identify warranty items, and airframe and engine maintenance support plan claims, and interface with OEMs.

What do you enjoy the most about your job?

I love the magical elegance of private jets. I get to work around them every day, while interacting with a culturally diverse group of open-minded people.

What aspect of your job is the most challenging?

Ensuring mutual cost savings and satisfaction for all partners during a delicate claim negotiation.

How do you meet the challenge?

I create trust by bringing people together with diplomacy and integrity.

What inspires you?

Traveling, exploring and enjoying multicultural interests with my niece.
